

Second Class Status & Collateral Consequences

Stigmatization of Individuals with Criminal Convictions

Monday, November 4, 6:30 p.m., Gewirz 12
Reception to follow

Join a group of distinguished experts to discuss the challenges faced by individuals with criminal convictions. The panel discussion will focus on specific legal barriers, generalized discrimination, and social stigma in such areas as employment, voting, immigration, education, housing, and parenting. We will also kick off a book drive for regional prisons. More book drive info via email and on ACLU's website: <http://georgetownlaw.orgsync.com/org/aclu>

Panelists:

Eddie Ellis, Founder, One by 1

David Lopez, General Counsel, EEOC

Cynthia Goode Works, Attorney, Adjunct Professor, and Former Dir. of Education & Training, National Legal Aid & Defender Association

Marc Mauer, Executive Director, The Sentencing Project

Margaret Colgate Love, Criminal Attorney and Former U.S. Pardon Attorney

Aisha N. Braveboy, Member, Maryland House of Delegates

Moderator: Norman Reimer, Exec. Director, National Assoc. of Criminal Defense Lawyers

Questions/RSVP: aclu@law.georgetown.edu

Brought to you by: Human Rights Action-Amnesty International (HRA-AI) Wrongful Convictions Committee, Georgetown Criminal Law Association (GCLA), Black Law Students Association (BLSA), Georgetown Youth Advocacy Project (GYA), American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU-GULC), American Constitution Society (ACS), & Latin American Law Students Association (LALSA).